dent. We shall not let the bill pass as it came from the Council.

"We were delighted and surprised with the excellent management. I had never been in either institution before, and others of us had not, although we have been in the House for several years. Superintendents Runge and Remmers are Republicans, but they deserve credit for their good work."

Illinois Photographers

pose of the trip was to ascertain if the inmates of the institutions are suffering because the temporary appropriation bill is being held up. The party consisted of Speaker Cronin and Delegates Sweeney, Kelly, Stannard, Geraghty, Howard, Fontana, Gazzolo, Burke, Buckley, Brennan, Zachritz, Hannigan, Kinney, Denny, Williams, and Faulkner.

Speaker Cronin and Delegates Sweeney and Kelly say they found everything in "excellent condition." The two institutions, they say, are not overcrowded, furnishings and clothing are all that might be desired, and the buildings are adequate. They express themselves as having been delighted with everything.

"We went out there," said Mr. Kelly, "to convince ourselves that Councilman Hodges made a misstatement when he said the inmates of the Poorhouse are suffering because the appropriation bill has not been passed. We don't propose to let the Council run us. The Democrats in the Council are letting the Republicans manage affairs for them, as none of them know anything about municipal affairs, except the Presi-Hisois Photographers.

REFUBLIC SPECIAL.
